Acknowledgment of Inherent Risks

While the staff aims to provide me with a safe and enjoyable experience, I realize that there is a certain degree of personal injury risk inherent in rock climbing activities when I participate. Although I will be instructed in safe practices in these activities, there are additional and unpredictable hazards relating to these activities that cannot be anticipated.

Assumption of Risk and My Responsibility

Knowing the physical risks inherent in these activities, I understand that I must assume responsibility for my own safety and the safety of other group members. This responsibility requires that I obey all rules and guidelines at all times and ask questions if I do not understand instructions given by instructors/staff. Further, I agree to pay attention to the condition of the equipment I may use (including but not limited to ropes, anchors, and climbing equipment) and immediately report to an instructor any perceived defect in the equipment. It is recommended that I wear a helmet, and it is mandatory that I wear a helmet if I am under 16 years of age.
